APPEAL IS MADE BY RUSSIAN PRISONERS

Women are Kept Chained Day and Night and Fed on Bread and Water.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Berlin, May 19.—By some means or other the political prisoners confined at Schlosburg, near Petersburg, have succeeded in smuggling out of the fortress an appeal addressed to the foreign press in the hope that if publicity is given to their sufferings, an inquiry into their treatment will be ordered from high quarters. A copy of the appeal, written on behalf of seventy-three political prisoners, six of whom are women, has been received here. The writers say that their hands and feet are chained day and night, and that they are given no food but bread and water.

The appeal goes on to narrate that but long ago the fortress was visited by the director of Russian administration, one of the prisoners refused to stand up when the director entered his cell and was thoroughly given the fifty lashes with the baston. When the other prisoners protested against this punishment the warders attacked them with the butt ends of their rifles, inflicting severe injuries and rendering many of them unconscious.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., May 19.—Frank Pzyznick and Jacob Zuchowski, two of the four men charged with the murder of Dominic Gatrinski, treasurer of the Skarb Sokolski Society on April 3rd, this morning entered pleas of guilty in the second and third degrees of murder respectively before Judge Brazee. The trial began immediately afterwards in the municipal court.

To File Complaint.
The Western Union Telegraph company will be made defendants in a complaint which will soon be filed with the State Railway Commission in regard to the services of the telephone company in this county. The action arose over the doing away with operators at certain stations along the line of the railway because of the eight hour telegraphers' law. It seems since the withdrawal by the railways of operators at those points the Western Union Telegraph company has been receiving messages for those points and has been telephoning them from the nearest points to the various stations of delivery at which it has a wire office and charging the cost of the telephoning to the receiver of the message.

BRYAN WILL FIGHT FOR A DELEGATION

Colonel J. M. Guffey Will Decide Whether Delegation is to be Instituted.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Harrisburg, Pa., May 19.—Publicity agents of the Bryan, Johnson and Gray teams circulated quietly among the advance guard of delegates to the democratic state convention today. The convention, which will be called to order in the Orpheum theater at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, will nominate a candidate for the Superior Court to succeed Judge William D. Porter, of Pittsburgh, and elect four delegates-at-large to the democratic national convention, and name four candidates for elector-at-large for the coming presidential campaign. Colonel J. M. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, has the situation well in hand and it will be up to him to decide whether Pennsylvania delegation shall go to Denver instructed to vote for William J. Bryan. Reports have been circulated from time to time recently to the effect that Col. Guffey, out of consideration for his friend, State Treasurer William Berry, who is an ardent Bryan man and whose name has been suggested for second place on the national ticket, would permit tomorrow's convention to instruct for the Nebraska.

Those on the inside, however, are of the opinion that Colonel Guffey intends to adhere to his original program. If Bryan can't be beaten, Pennsylvania will turn in for him, but Colonel Guffey holds that the delegation should go to Denver instructed, so as to take advantage of whatever conditions may arise. The convention therefore is not likely to instruct for president, but it will adopt the unit rule, by which the state delegation will vote as one man.

LIQUOR REGULATION ISSUE OF ELECTION

Of the City Election Which Will Be Held at Denver Colorado Today.

Speer, the democratic nominee for reelection, and Horace Phelps, republican. The regulation of the liquor traffic forms one of the chief issues of the contest. The republican platform declares for the abolition of saloons in residence sections, while the democrats are generally believed to be opposed to any radical steps toward curbing the liquor traffic.

RECIPROCAL TARIFF WILL BE DISCUSSED

Cotton Seed Crushers' Association to Hold Annual Convention.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Louisville, Ky., May 19.—With members on hand representing about 700 mills and other enterprises scattered throughout the south, the Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers' Association began its annual meeting in Louisville today. Last night and this morning special trains arrived with large delegations from Arkansas, Tennessee, Georgia, South Carolina, Texas, Alabama and other states.

The meeting will be in session three days, with President L. A. Ransom of Atlanta, presiding. More than ordinary interest attaches to the convention this year because of the importance of some of the questions to be discussed. Foremost the matters to receive attention is the question of the growing foreign trade of the industry and the need of establishing reciprocal tariff relations with the countries which are the leading customers of the trade. There will probably be a further discussion of the shipping industry and the handling of the products in transit by land and water. The storing of oil and extending of the trade period throughout the year instead of the present policy of prompt selling and marketing of all the oil within a few winter months will be considered.

Kansas And Indiana G. A. R. Gather By The Hundred For Camp Fires.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Kansas City, Kan., May 19.—Veterans by the hundreds and many other visitors are here to attend the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Kansas, which opened here today with headquarters at Huron park. Despite the fact that the soldiers are so rapidly increasing in numbers, the encampment promises to be one of the most successful ever held in Kansas. The encampment is to continue three days. There also will be annual meetings of the several affiliated societies, such as the Woman's Relief Corps, and many regimental and other organizations. Among the veterans chief interest centers in the spirited contest that is on for the office of Department Commander. The choice lies between two candidates, W. A. Morgan of Cottonwood Falls and Rev. B. F. Boyle of Atchison. The preparations for the reception and entertainment of the veterans are of the most complete and elaborate character. Public receptions and campfire meetings with speeches by men of prominence will be leading features of the programme. The business session of the city is handsomely decorated in honor of the visitors. 29th Encampment. Kokomo, Ind., May 19.—Although the big events of the twenty-ninth annual encampment of the Indiana G. A. Spirit of contests for offices in the several organizations are exciting keen attention among the delegates. The courthouse square and the business streets are hung with flags and beautiful patriotic decorations and the parade tomorrow will move through karlands of red, white and blue hung from buildings, poles and wires. A hundred or more decorated automobiles will be a striking feature of the parade.

BELOIT MAY DOUBLE AMOUNT OF LICENSE

Ordinance to That Effect Was Introduced in the Council Meeting Last Night.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Beloit, May 19.—Alderman Burlingame last evening at the meeting of the Beloit council introduced an ordinance raising the saloon-licenses from $500 to $1,000 a year. The ordinance was drawn up with the assistance of City Attorney Adams. It was given its first and second readings and was referred to the license and judiciary committees. It is supposed that the introduction of this ordinance is the result of Rockford going dry. Last Saturday evening a large number of thirsty people from the Illinois town invaded Beloit and made more or less trouble for the police. Objects to Contractor. A motion to bond the city to pay for the new $50,000 sewer, the contract for which was recently authorized, was lost by a vote of eleven to four. As it requires a three quarters vote to pass the motion it was lost by a but one vote. It is thought that all the aldermen are in favor of the sewer, but that the four voting against the proposition to bond the city objected to the contractor to whom the contract has been let. It is an Italian by the name of Madoff from Rockford. It was believed by those voting against the bonding motion that this contractor would hire only Italian labor and that it would be much better to let the contract to a man who would employ Beloit men who are out of work. Passed Over Veto. The council repassed the measure electing Owen Baker as street commissioner. This officer was formerly appointed by the board of public works, but when the council took the bit in their teeth after the recent election they elected the street commissioner themselves. Mayor Cunningham vetoed the appointment and the council last night elected Baker over the mayor's veto.

KARL BOLAGNE LIVES ONE YEAR ON TRAIN.

Vien.—Karl Bolagne, head salesman for one of the largest tobacco firms of this city, is traveling along the route mapped out above day after day. He has kept this up for 10 months now, and expects to complete the year of continuous travel on the train.

The Austrian drummer, if successful, will win a wager made in New York city about a year ago, of $8,500 while discussing the trials of a traveling salesman with a well known New York sportsman, the statement was made that a man could not stand the strain of one year's continuous travel on a train. Bolagne claimed that it could be done. The wager was the result, and upon his return to Salzburg, Bolagne made preparations for the trip.

In due legal form a contract was drawn up, under which the drummer bound himself to five on the railroad, traveling the round trip Vienna-Linz-Salzburg-Innsbruck-Vienna for 12 months.

He has only one sickness during the entire 10 months. This was a violent attack of the grip, but he stuck to the train and is now in good health and fine spirits. He says he will win the money, but would not undertake the trip again for twice the amount.

He is comfortably situated in a private section, and occupies his time in writing and in transacting private business matters. Should he succeed in living on the train for one year continuously, he will have a unique record which is not apt to soon be broken.

THE UNIVERSITY OF HAVANA.

Havana, Cuba.—The new assembly room of the University of Havana shown above is just being completed. This, with the extensive alterations and repairs on the old Spanish arsenal, now furnishes magnificent university buildings.

Cuba has been very backward in the advancement of education and up to the time of the Spanish-American war fully three-fourths of its inhabitants could neither read nor write. In 1895 Gen. Tomas Estrada Palma, before the Hon. Richard Olney, secretary of state, said:

"The University of Havana is without laboratories, instruments or even water to carry on experiments. All of the countries of America except Bolivia, all of them, including Haiti, Jamaica, Trinidad and Guadeloupe, where the colored race predominates, spend a great deal more than the Cuban government for the education of its people."

Today the University of Havana is well equipped in every department. It is co-educational and includes besides the regular academic courses all of the engineering courses. The students of the engineering departments are taught from English text books in the English language, and thorough mastery of English is required for entrance. The head of the engineering department is a graduate of Stevens' Technical college at Hoboken and his assistant is a Cornell man.

The college is supported by the government and by the city of Havana. One of its unique courses is a study of criminal skulls. The university has one of the most complete exhibits of criminal skulls in the world. The government museum exhibit is located in the university and is also very complete. The college today is thoroughly equipped with every laboratory device and ranks with the best schools of America. It has an attendance of from 1,300 to 1,400 students.

NO ARBITRATION WHILE MEN RIOT

HEAD OF TRACTION COMPANY IN CLEVELAND IS FIRM.

PEACE PLAN IS A FAILURE

Strikers and Their Sympathizers
Again Resort to Violence—Car Men Beaten and Wires Cut.

Cleveland, O., May 19.—The attempt by the members of the state board of arbitration Monday to bring about peace between the Municipal Traction Company and its striking employees resulted in a failure.

President Dupont conferred with Members Bishop and Owens of the board in regard to strike settlement, and while he agreed to arbitrate some points he would not concede the one thing for which the men stand determinedly.

"In no case will I arbitrate the reinstatement of the men at the expense of those now employed," he said. "I shall stick for the seniority of men, those now working getting the preference."

President Dupont was asked whether he would arbitrate all other points, he replied that he would, arbitrate no points until the lawlessness had ceased.

"The men had no right to strike in the face of arbitration and I will not confer with them until they purge themselves of the lawless element."

Many Deeds of Violence.

Deeds of violence continued to be reported on the part of strike sympathizers throughout the day. A car was held up at the corner of Broadway and Central avenue. A brick was thrown striking the conductor in the head, knocking him unconscious. His condition is serious, but it is thought he will recover. The motorman was dragged from the car, but was released when it was supposed by the rioters that the conductor had been killed. A non-union motorman while walking to the Windomere barns Monday was attacked by a number of strike sympathizers and terribly beaten. Trolley wires were cut and obstructions placed on the car tracks at many points.

Cars Carry Policemen.

Trolley wires were cut, crews were driven from their cars and, in some instances, non-union men were attacked by strike sympathizers. Trolley wires in Lakewood, a western suburb, were cut in several places with the result that the Municipal Traction Company announced that no further attempt would be made to operate cars in that section until the Lakewood authorities guaranteed protection for its men and cars. Because of alleged discrimination against Lakewood by the Municipal Traction Company in the matter of fare, it is claimed that the authorities of the town make no effort to suppress lawless acts committed by strike sympathizers. There was a marked increase in the number of cars operated by the company Monday, a five-minute schedule being maintained on some of the lines. Each car carried a policeman in the motorman's vestibule.

Several Cars Dynamited.

A Broadway street car was partly destroyed by a dynamite torpedo Monday night. While 25 passengers were in the car, no one was seriously hurt. A West Madison street car also was damaged by an explosion of powder upon the track, and one woman was severely injured.

After one o'clock in the morning a Detroit avenue car was dynamited near One Hundredth street. The trucks were badly damaged but the single passenger and the crew were not injured.

Utting Cleveland near the Windomere barns in East Highland when strikers cut six trolley wires. Men for the company turned out in force to repair the damage, but were driven back by a gang of 300 men.

BAD FLOOD AT MELLEN, WIS.

People Driven from Homes and City
Power House Swamped.

Ashland, Wis., May 19.—A violent rainstorm swept over the northern part of Wisconsin. At Mellen, Ashland county, the dam went out Monday morning. Hundreds of residents in the Italian quarter and near the Foster-Lattimer mill were driven from their homes in the darkness by the flood, and cows and other stock were drowned. Three bridges went out. The power house was flooded and the dynamo destroyed.

Communication between the two parts of Mellen is cut off. Public schools and mills are shut down and the city will be in darkness for several days on account of damage to the lighting plant. Families are jammed on the surrounding hills.

Postmaster Kills Himself.

Two Harbors, Minn., May 19.—Postmaster Dury of this place, aged 54 was found dead Monday by his wife. He had been shot by a revolver which he was cleaning to take on a fishing trip. It is believed the weapon was fired accidentally. His accounts with the government are straight.

Earthquake in Montana.

Helena, Mont., May 19.—Three earthquake shocks were perceptible in this county Sunday night. At Marysville dishes rattled on shelves and clocks were made to strike by the seismic disturbances. No damage was done.

A Drawback.

The great trouble with some men is that they can have self-respect without half trying.

SPLIT ON RUM QUESTION

WASHINGTON DEMOCRATS IN FIERCE CONTROVERSY.

Local Optionists to Carry Fight to Floor of Convention—Bell in Control in California.

Spokane, Wash., May 19.—Split in half a dozen factions by a fierce controversy over the liquor question, the Washington Democratic state convention which assembled here Monday faced a long night session after one of the stormiest days in the history of Washington state politics.

With local option beaten in the platform committee, the fight was ready to be carried to the floor of the convention by a minority report backed by delegates from the smaller counties and even a plank calling for straight out state prohibition was threatened to be presented. To effect a compromise of the differences between the several congressional districts in the matter of the selection of the eight delegates-at-large, the convention voted to send 20 delegates to Denver, giving each man half a vote.

The convention will go on record for William Jennings Bryan for president and will declare for immediate tariff revision, control of trusts, initiative and referendum, postal savings banks, and guarantee of bank deposits by the national government or the states.

Fresno, Cal., May 19.—The California Democratic state convention was called to order here Monday afternoon by State Chairman Spillane. One session was held in the afternoon and another at night, but the convention is not expected to conclude its work before Tuesday afternoon.

Theodore A. Bell, Democratic candidate for governor two years ago, leading the anti-organization wing of the party, won a decided victory in gaining control of the convention. Sentiment is overwhelmingly for William Jennings Bryan for president.

Montgomery, Ala., May 19.—Incomplete returns from Monday's primary indicate that William J. Bryan will be supported by the Alabama delegation to the national convention at Denver. A large vote was polled for Gov. Johnson in the southern part of the state while the northern counties favored Bryan.

MAE WOOD TAKES STAND.

Tells of Senator Platt's Lovemaking—
She Seeks a Divorce.

New York, May 19.—Mae C. Wood, the Omaha girl who is suing United States Senator Thomas C. Platt for divorce, alleging that the senator formally entered into a marriage contract with her on November 9, 1901, gave testimony in the suit Monday. She identified copies of several letters which she said were received by her from Platt. They were mainly of an affectionate nature, but in several there were interesting sentences of other affairs. In one communication was the phrase: "Your letter has cheered me up so that I am almost reconciled to Odell's election." A picture of the senator was shown, upon the back was written: "To my little wife." Telling how this was written, Miss Wood said: "Well, I was sitting on his lap. Part of the time he held my hand and part of the time I held his hand. We wrote it together. The words, 'little wife' were written by him, I think." Miss Wood said that the senator came to her room in her hotel with two men and that he formally acknowledged her as his wife before these two men. Senator Platt was not in court.

TWO BANKERS ARRESTED.

Charged with Receiving Deposits,
Knowing Bank to Be Insolvent.

Owensboro, Ky., May 19.—T. S. Anderson, president of the Davies County Bank and Trust company, and James H. Parrish, president of the Owensboro Savings Bank & Trust company, were arrested Monday afternoon. Anderson is charged with appropriating $20,000 of the bank's funds to his own use and with receiving deposits when he knew the bank to be insolvent. Parrish was arrested on two warrants charging him with receiving deposits when he knew the bank to be insolvent. Both waived examination trials and were bound over to the grand jury under $15,000 bond. Both banks recently assigned.

Texas Railway Law Invalid.

Washington, May 19.—In deciding the case of the Galveston & San Antonio Railway company versus the State of Texas, involving taxes on that and other Texas roads, the supreme court of the United States Monday held to be unconstitutional the Texas law of 1905 fixing the tax rate on railroads equal to one per cent. on their gross earnings when they lie wholly within the state and a proportionate sum when they lie partly within the state.

Helped to Plunder His Bank.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 19.—Ernest W. Bowman, former assistant cashier of the Citizens National bank of Tionesta, Pa., near here, pleaded guilty in the United States court Monday to a charge of aiding and abetting Joseph W. Landers and William C. Wyman in the abstraction of the bank's funds, amounting to over $14,000. He will be sentenced later.

Ex-Judge Finkelberg Dies.

Denver, Col., May 19.—G. A. Finkelberg, who resigned as judge of the United States district court at St. Louis, Mo., in 1907 on account of failing health, died in this city Monday. He was born near Cologne, Prussia, April 6, 1837.

WOMAN A VICTIM OF MRS. GUNNESS

ONE OF THE BODIES IS FOUND TO BE THAT OF A FEMALE.

FITS STORY OF GREENING

Man and Wife Disappeared the Night
Jennie Olsen Is Believed to Have Been Murdered.

Laporte, Ind., May 19.—The autopsy on the remains of the seven unidentified dead exhumed from Mrs. Gunness' private burial ground and revealed Monday evening and revealed the astounding fact, according to the reports of Dr. F. T. Wilcox and George H. Osborne, that one of the seven was a female. This has aroused new interest in the story of Emil Greening of Oklahoma City, Okla., who was employed by Mrs. Gunness in the fall of 1904.

Greening worked for Mrs. Gunness at the time that Jennie Olsen disappeared and his story was to the effect that on a certain day in September, a man and woman came to the house and that night Mrs. Gunness asked Greening to sleep in the barn, for the couple, who she said were a professor and his wife from the Los Angeles college which Jennie was to attend, would spend the night at the house and would require Greening's bedroom. In the morning Greening saw nothing of Jennie nor the man and woman, and was informed by Mrs. Gunness that they had left on an early train, taking Jennie along.

May Have Slain the Couple.

This body, which is now declared to be that of a woman, was taken from the same hole as was that of Jennie Olsen, and in that hole also were the bodies of Ole Budberg, of Iowa, Wis., and the remains of a male person. All the bodies were dismembered but it was possible to identify the bodies of Jennie Olsen and Mr. Budberg, and the autopsies have determined that one of the other two was that of a female.

The theory advanced is that Mrs. Gunness, the night that Greening slept in the barn, murdered not only Jennie Olsen, but also the man and woman. To Coroner Muel, Sheriff Smutzer and Prosecutor Smith this seems almost inconceivable, but they consider, in the light of recent developments, that nothing appeared impossible for this arch-murderer. The stomachs of the four victims in this hole have been removed and the contents will be analyzed for poison. The disappearance of Jennie Olsen, as well as of the couple, occurred in September, 1906, while Budberg was disposed of in May, 1907.

Lamphere Had Moe's Watch.

The mystery surrounding the watch found on the person of Ray Lamphere when he was arrested was cleared Monday when J. G. Hamden of Manfred, N. D., who came here to investigate the disappearance of his half brother, John Moe of Ellow Lake, Minn., identified the timepiece as the one owned by his brother when he left home. The numbers of the watch corresponded with the numbers in Moe's possession. Lamphere said that Mrs. Gunness gave him the watch.

The Laporte county grand jury Monday heard the stories of a number of witnesses in the Gunness case, excellent progress being made. The expectation is that the greater part of the week will be consumed in the investigation. The trial of Lamphere in the event that he is indicted probably will not take place at this time of court.

BROKERS FORCED TO WALL

CAROTHERS & CO. OF PITTSBURG ARE BANKRUPT.

Failure of Big Firm Due Directly to Suspension of Allegheny National Bank.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 19.—Following the filing of an involuntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court late Monday, Attorney C. F. Patterson was appointed receiver for Carothers & Co., one of the largest brokerage firms in the city.

The firm is composed of James Carothers and William E. Van Rynhorst. It made a specialty of municipal bonds and was a heavy investor in the city of Pittsburgh securities.

That the failure of the brokerage firm is due to the suspension of the Allegheny National bank was stated by Receiver Patterson, who said: "The firm held a large amount of the bank's stock as collateral and when the bank closed the stock was no longer available in the firm's loans. As it was found impossible to procure collateral to substitute for the Allegheny National bank stock, it was deemed best for the interest of the firm's creditors to consent to the appointment of a receiver. Only a comparatively small number of the creditors hold the bank stock as security, and other loans of the firm are well secured."

Cashier William Montgomery, whose alleged peculations are responsible for the wrecking of the bank, did not appear before United States Commissioner Lindsay Monday when his preliminary hearing on the original charge of embezzling $169,000 of the bank's funds was called. Instead, his attorney, C. C. Dickey, waived the former cashier's rights and he was held to the federal grand jury.

LAST OF BIG SUPPLY BILLS.

House Passes General Deficiency Appropriation Measure.

Washington, May 19.—The passage by the house Monday of the general deficiency appropriation bill, carrying an appropriation of $17,368,572 marked the completion by that body of the last of the great supply measures of the government. The bill was put through under suspension of the rules with no time allowance for general debate.

Several measures were passed by unanimous consent, including a joint resolution providing for the payment of an annuity for life of $125 a month each to the widows of Surgeons James Carroll and Jesse Lazear, United States army, in recognition of their discoveries in connection with the transmission of yellow fever by mosquitoes.

The senate held a short legislative session nearly half of which was consumed by Senator Hayburn, in a filibustering speech against a conference report on a bill to increase homesteads on non-irrigable lands from 160 to 320 acres, which he declared would apply to the richest farm lands of Idaho. After proceeding for an hour, the objectionable report was withdrawn.

SOLONS SUBMIT TO GOV. PINDALL

ARKANSAS LEGISLATURE WILL HAVE NO EXTRA SESSION.

QUORUM IS NOT PRESENT

Members of Both Houses Meet and Recognize Acting Executive's
Right to Revoke
the Call.

Little Rock, Ark., May 19.—The Arkansas legislature failed to convene Monday in pursuance to a call issued by Speaker Allen H. Hamfior, while he was acting governor, and as the result there will be no extraordinary session of that body.

Noon and afternoon sessions were held by members of both the senate and house, but there was not a quorum at any of the four sessions. The house at the close of the afternoon session adjourned sine die. The senate met as a mass meeting of senators in the afternoon and, adopting resolutions recognizing Acting Gov. X. O. Pindall's power to revoke Speaker Hamfior's call for an extra session, agreed to disperse and return home.

Pindall Feared the Senate.

Contrary to expectations no attempt was made in the senate to elect a new president of that body and thus institute an outer movement against Gov. Pindall. However, the possibility of a movement of that kind were so great before the senate met that Gov. Pindall, fearing such an attempt, at a salute or two before 12 started to leave his office for the senate chamber with the intention of presiding. Previously he had declared that he would not recognize the session as he had issued a proclamation revoking the call. Gov. Pindall was stopped at the threshold of his office by George W. Donaghey of Conway, Democratic nominee for governor, who advised against him going to the senate chamber. Pindall accepted his advice and returned to his office. He did not go near the senate chamber at either meeting.

The senate proceedings took up nothing but the question of how to properly adjourn.

Close Vote in the House.

The house displayed an inclination to adjourn until a quorum could be secured. There were 42 members present at the noon session and 47 at the second. Fifty-one were required for a quorum. Speaker Hamfior presided at both sessions. The noon session lasted but a few minutes. The afternoon session lasted fully an hour and a half and during that time many of the representatives delivered more or less spirited speeches in which different views on the subject of an extra session were expressed.

Between ten and 11 o'clock a caucus of 51 members of the house was held at the city hall. The caucus was open to all members and those participating were not to be bound by the vote of the caucus. Twenty-six voted to adjourn sine die, after convening, and 25 voted against. Eleven of this total also voted not to answer roll call.

Twenty-two members of the senate caucused at the Hotel Marion. Gov. Pindall was present and made a short address in which he explained his reasons for revoking the call.

OFFICERS NURSED FRIENDLESS WOMAN

At the Police Station Last Evening—Gave Her Name as Mamie Keefe and Said She Came from Rockford.

Carrying a dress-suit case and walking with unsteady gait on South River street last evening, Mamie Keefe, a Rockford woman who had been rooming at the house tenanted by a colored family at the corner of Franklin and Pleasant streets for some days past, was picked up by Officer William Mason and escorted to the police station. She had been locked up in the woman's compartment but a short time when she complained of terrible cramps and the police physician, could not be located near by. Dr. W. A. Eldon with call and it was only after considerable delay that Dr. W. A. Eldon could be summoned. The latter worked over her for two hours, administering, with the assistance of Chief Appleby, Officer Brown, and others who happened to be at the station, hot water compresses and hypodermic injections. Officer Brown gave up his car and sometime after midnight the unfortunate woman fell asleep there. Her slumber was not lasting, however, and all through the night the officers performed the duties of professional nurses. The woman had another bad spell again this morning and Dr. Charles Zachland attended her. It is hoped that she will be well enough sometime during the day to resume her journey to Beloit, where she says she has friends.

UNITED STATES SENATOR MONEY LIVES THIRTY-FIVE YEARS WITH NECK BROKEN.

Senator Money in very excellent about spending of his broken neck. It has just lately come to the notice of the friends and back of it lies some interesting facts in Mr. Money's life. He has lived 35 years with his neck crooked and has not known what the trouble was. Recently he had occasion to consult an osteopath for neuralgia. The osteopath discovered that Mr. Money's neck was dislocated. At the first battle of Franklin, in April, 1863, Mr. Money was a cavalryman in the Confederate service. While riding through the streets he was struck by a bullet that entered around his ribs, doing no other injury.

The shock was such that Mr. Money was thrown from his horse and struck on his head. Being helpless he was captured and taken within the Federal lines. He did not ask for medical treatment, was exchanged later, rejoined his troops and fought until the war closed.

Years passed and Mr. Money entered the senate. Neuralgia had taken a firm hold of him and his eyesight had grown so bad as to approximate blindness. Senator Foraker advised Mr. Money to try osteopathy, which was just beginning to attract much attention. Mr. Foraker's daughter had been benefited by the treatment.

Senator Money went to New York, accompanied by his son, and visited the osteopathist. Almost the doctor's first remark was:

"Why, senator, you have had your neck broken."

Senator Money denied all knowledge of such an infliction. The physician declared that one of the vertebrae had been entirely pushed from the top of the column supporting the head and was in a wrong position. He demonstrated that the muscles on one side of the neck were flabby useless.

"If you had been old enough to take part in the Civil war," said the physician, "I would say you were thrown from a horse and sustained the broken neck."

"That is just exactly what did happen," replied Senator Money, recalling the injury at Franklin.

"I can cure your neck," said the physician; "it will require but a moment's time."

The osteopathist laid the senator on a table, took hold of the misplaced vertebrae with both hands and snapped it into proper position. The noise made by the bone snapping into place was like the report of a pistol.

The senator's son, who was looking out of the window, turned in alarm, saying: "Father, have you broken your neck?" "No," replied the senator, "I have just had it set."

The physician told Senator Money that he must exercise precaution until the weakened muscles regained their normal strength. He was cautioned not to turn his head in looking at anything, but to move the entire body. These instructions were observed, and the neck apparently became as strong as it was 35 years before the operation.

The resumption of the osteopathic treatment for neuralgia caused the strange facts to become known.

FOUND INSANE MAN NEAR MILTON TODAY

Fred Martin Was Captured About Four Miles from Milton—Is in Lock-up.

Fred Martin, who was going to Howe's in company with Dr. Armstrong of that place to be examined as to his mental condition, and who gave the doctor the slip at Milton Junction last night, was discovered in a field about four miles from Milton today.

The man believed himself to be mentally unbalanced and requested the physician to accompany him to the private sanatorium at Wauwatosa. Under the circumstances the doctor did not feel the necessity of a close watch.

The brothers of the demented man will arrive here tonight and take him to Wauwatosa tomorrow.

When discovered he was quite insane and was put in handcuffs when he was brought down here on the train and locked up in the city lock-up.

MISS REID'S ENGAGEMENT THE RESULT OF A ROMANTIC COURTSHIP.

London.—The engagement of Miss Reid, daughter of the ambassador, to Hon. John Hubert Ward, a king's equerry, is the result of a happy romance.

Although Miss Reid and Mr. Ward met from time to time in the past two years at social functions, it was not until the visit six weeks ago of the ambassador and Miss Reid to Biarritz where King Edward was staying, that the pretty romance began which is to end in a wedding. The king and the ambassador took many motor trips together and passed much time in each other's company.

This of course left Miss Reid and Mr. Ward, who was there as an attendant on the king, with extra time on their hands, which promised to drag wearily until they became better acquainted. They were not long in doing this however, and soon found the problem of killing time really delightful.

Miss Reid remained for two weeks visiting friends after her father's return to London, while Mr. Ward had to stay on with the king until after the new government was formed. But on the king's return to London the equerry lost no time in resuming his suit, being a constant visitor at Dorchester House, where he took two, if not three, times a day, and found the problem of killing time really delightful.

S. H. M. BYERS.

Des Moines, Ia.—In the list of American patriotic songs it is doubtful if there is another with so romantic a story as "When Sherman Marched Down to the Sea," by S. H. M. Byers, who is still living in Des Moines and recently related the story.

The song was written while Major Byers, then adjutant of the Fifth Iowa, was a prisoner of war at Columbia, S. C. The prisoners were allowed no newspapers, but the major persuaded an old negro who brought bread to them to secret a little sheet of newspaper in one of his loaves. From its columns the prisoners secretly learned the truth—Sherman with nearly 100,000 men had cut the southern confederacy in two. He had reached the ocean. The audacity of his victory had stirred the whole world. Major Byers was inspired and wrote the song. It was carried out of prison by an exchange soldier in the hollow of his wooden leg. Shortly afterwards Mr. Byers escaped from prison to find that the whole country was singing his song. Sherman wrote intimate letters to Byers, which are now in the Iowa Historical archives. They became friends.

Luxury.

I know it is more agreeable to walk upon carpets than to lie upon dunce floors; I know it is pleasant to have all the comforts and luxuries of civilization, but he who cares only for these things is worth no more than a butterfly, contented and thoughtless upon a morning flower; and who ever thought of rearing a tombstone to a fast summer's butterfly?—Henry Ward Beecher.

The New Deere No. 9 Corn Planter

Combines extreme accuracy of drop with simplicity and convenience. It has fewer parts and less working parts than any other planter. Always ready for either hilling or drilling. Perfect tip-over hoppers. This planter will save its cost by giving you better returns for years to come. One point of excellence is the

Perfect Cut-off

The improved form of cut-off on the New Deere is shown in the accompanying illustration. Its action is quick and free, and the moving parts are so shaped and so controlled that it is impossible to injure the corn. Don't confuse our cut-off with imperfect imitations. The clearance of the cells is rendered positive by the spring knocker, which is placed directly above the opening of the upper valve, so that each kernel is discharged upon the valve without fail.

The Sight Feed

A sufficient opening is left just above the upper valve to enable the operator to plainly see the kernels as they are collected for the hill. A glance at any time will show what work is being done.

If you are going to purchase a corn planter this season, or any other farm machinery, I'll be glad to have you look over my stock. Drop in and get our prices next time you are in Janesville.

SKIN CURE A SIMPLE WASH.

External Remedy for Eczema Sufferers Greatly Simplifies the Treatment.

If you are suffering from any burning itching skin disease, the only way to cure it is to go right after the real trouble—to cure the skin itself.

Thousands of patients have suffered for months in vain attempts to doctor their blood when the whole trouble was bacilli feeding upon the skin and causing the unsightly blotches and sores.

Skin specialists now prescribe a simple liquid wash, easy to apply, which gives instant relief. This remedy is composed of all of wintergreen to which are added healing vegetable remedies. Oil of wintergreen alone will not cure, but a certain of experts in Chicago, headed by a noted specialist, experimented with other medicinal properties until they found the proper preparation. The result of their efforts is called D. D. D. Prescription, a sure specific for the cure of skin diseases.

Here is only one instance of what D. D. D. Prescription has done: "My little girl's head was a running sore. D. D. D. Prescription has cured her sound and well."—L. L. Hipp, Phil Campbell, Ala.

If you are suffering from any skin disease, would it not pay you to try one bottle of D. D. D. Prescription? You probably have spent many times the cost of one bottle vainly trying to stop that awful burning itch. J. P. Baker and Holmstrom's Drug Store, call at our store for a free booklet on the cure and purification of the D. D. D. Soap. This valuable booklet is absolutely free.

CANVILLE.

Canville, May 18.—The rain has put most of the farmers back with their work in this vicinity, so that very little corn is being planted as yet.

The Mite society met with Mrs. Will Latta last Thursday afternoon. On account of the inclemency of the weather there was not a very large attendance, but those who went enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

Master Seth and Calvert Cahn of Canville visited Wallace Thompson and Lester Townsend from Friday until Sunday.

Elmer Dixon of Harvard visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Andrea.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cahn and daughter Mildred and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones of Canville were visitors at the home of George Townsend on Sunday.

Mrs. George Townsend and Mrs. Clara Hawk attended the Eastern Star banquet in Canville last Wednesday night.

Clinton, May 19.—Prof. Lowth spent Friday in Canville, getting a little acquainted with his future school and home.

Harold Bruce tried his hand at high school teaching on Friday, having charge of classes in algebra and arithmetic.

F. S. Thomas and wife left for Elkhorn the early part of last week, on their way to Lauderdale lake, where they will spend the summer.

W. E. and Mrs. Bruce left for their summer home at Lauderdale lake on Friday.

J. H. Greene and wife and Mrs. Nettie Scott spent Friday in Chicago.

R. W. Cheever was a Delavan visitor on Friday.

The Creamery Co. stockholders met on Friday, formally dissolved the organization, delivered up their stock and pocketed their cash.

The Congregational society gave one of its delightful suppers at the church on Friday evening, which was well patronized. They also sold a goodly number of aprons.

The church at Bergen also served a fine supper on Friday, which was liberally patronized.

R. W. Cheever is spending a portion of this week at Fulton, Ill.

Just after supper on Friday evening the fire bell began to ring. The fire company responded very promptly, but fortunately their services were not needed, as a coal, in the barn on the Drake property occupied by Mrs. Griswold, was soon located and thrown in the street to finish burning. Had the fire been a little later or not so soon discovered much damage would probably have been the result.

A new barn is being built to replace the one destroyed by fire on the Monroe place.

The basement for H. W. Conley's new house on Highland Park avenue, is being put in.

A part of a day at a time of pleasant weather seems to be about the limit this year.

Three more new houses on the avenue, besides the two already under way, will help that part of the city very materially.

E. A. Bradley, a former Clinton boy, but for years the railway agent of the C. M. & St. P. Co. at Webster, S. D., has recently been selected out of some 150 applicants for the position, as train dispatcher on the new extension of the railroad and is now stationed at Miles City, Montana. His many friends here will be pleased to congratulate him on his promotion.

Last Saturday was evidently not Clinton's day to win on the baseball field, as the Juniors were defeated at Sharon by a score of 13 to 5, and the high school team met with defeat at Evansville by a score of 4 to 0, but it was a good game at that. Larson struck out 13, but only follows allowed their pitcher to retire 16, and made errors that were costly.

Elmer Pense of Milwaukee spent the Sabbath with Clinton relatives.

The W. C. T. U. is to meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Margaret Dickerman.

Mrs. Paulay and family will very soon leave for his pastorate, East Troy.

Mr. and Mrs. Prisk, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Seeger, leave this week for California.

Vegetation has come forward very rapidly in the past few days.

Seldom indeed has the prospect been better for an abundance of fruit.

Farmers are now very busy with their corn planting between showers.

The secretary of the Milwaukee Y. M. C. A. spoke here on Sunday afternoon.

Bolot academy is to play our high school team here next Saturday.

Mrs. Ed. Powell, after an absence

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthily they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthily some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Mrs. W. Johnson, of 127 Pearl St., Janesville, Wis., says:

"For a long time I had a severe pain in my back that must have been due to some disorder of the kidneys. It was aching constantly and became so severe at times that I was almost prostrated. Numerous remedies that I tried, failed to help me and finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at The People's Drug Store. After using this remedy for a short time I found a complete cure, and the trouble has not returned."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

We Pay $2.50

For the Beans Now Used in Van Camp's

We told you we paid $2.10 per bushel for beans, but the price has advanced. You are eating so many of Van Camp's that the finest beans are scarce. We now must pay $2.50 for the grade which we demand.

The tremendous demand for Van Camp's beans has had its effect on the bean market.

Some beans still sell for 30 cents per bushel.

But such beans as we use are getting so scarce that we now pay $2.50 per bushel.

That means, in the first place, Michigan beans, grown on a soil extremely rich in nitrogen.

Then those choice beans are picked over by hand, so we get only the whitest, the plump, the fullest-grown.

Such beans now cost us eight times what some beans cost. Yet our prices are not advanced to you.

Our tomato sauce, too, costs us five times as much as other sauce would cost ready-made.

But the cheap sauce is made from tomatoes picked green, and ripened in shipment. Or of scraps from a canning factory.

Ours is made solely from whole tomatoes, ripened on the vines. Picked when the juice fairly sparkles.

That superlative zest, which adds so much to our beans, is due to this natural flavor.

These are times to be careful.

Poor beans are so cheap, and good beans are so costly, that there is every inducement for pushing the poor ones.

Salesmen are paid high commissions for this purpose. Grocers are offered special inducements.

Some charge our prices for inferior brands. Some charge a little less, yet make a larger profit.

For this is the condition: Beans can be had for one-eighth what we pay, and

Washington, D. C.—The secret of his political success, strange as it may seem, Senator Joseph Benson Foraker attributes to his wife, who possesses fine intuition. There are few better equipped to give political advice than she.

Mrs. Foraker has accompanied the senator on his campaign trips around Ohio. She knows most of the politicians intimately and can estimate the strength and capability and reliability of the voters a great deal better than her husband. He says he never disregarded her advice that he was not sorry afterwards.

FORMER RESIDENT DIED ON THURSDAY

John Wood, Who Lived Here in 1852, Passed Away at His Home in Evansville.

Evansville, May 18.—John Wood, who for more than fifty years has made his home within a few miles of this city, died Thursday night, May 11, at the old homestead near Magnolia, Ill., from the effects of paralysis, aged eighty-three years, five months and two days. Mr. Wood suffered a stroke of paralysis about two years ago and since that time has been a patient sufferer but was only confined to his bed for about two days during his last illness. He was born in Brighton, England, where he received his education and learned the shoemaker's trade. On June 29, 1850, he was married to Miss Ann White and two years later they sailed for America and came directly to Janesville, Wis., where he conducted a shoe shop for four years, making his home on Milton avenue during that time. In 1856 he traded his property in Janesville for the farm near Magnolia which he has improved and added to and where he has lived continuously. Mr. Wood was the oldest of a family of four brothers and three sisters, all of whom have passed to the life beyond except the youngest brother, George, who is a postmaster in England. For a number of years Mr. Wood has been a member of the Free Baptist church of this place and by his honest and upright life has won the confidence and highest regard of a host of friends and acquaintances, who will sympathize deeply with those who are left to grieve for their loss. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Albert Gibbs and Mrs. Stephen Wells, both of Evansville, and one son, B. D. Wood, who lives on the farm, and a number of grandchildren. Funeral services were held in the Free Baptist church here last Saturday afternoon at half-past two o'clock. The Rev. L. E. Sealey officiating. Edward A. Z., and Earl Gibbs, and Nelson, Loyal and Arthur Wells, all grandsons of the deceased, acted as bearers and tenderly laid his remains in their final resting-place in Maple Hill cemetery.

Mrs. C. B. Devine is very ill and suffering greatly from abscesses in the head.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Adams of Madison spent Sunday at Evansville. Mr. Adams spent the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon and again at the Congregational church in the evening. While here were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hillman.

BY EDITH HUNTINGTON MASON PICTURES BY WILL WALTERS FREY CAMPBELL ALESHIRE WILSON

I called to Vincent, and as I pointed at the magnificent and telltale piece of jewelry we both gazed at it, speechless with surprise at discovering in such a manner the secret of the Honorable Agatha's identity. Before she had quite regained her consciousness I rejudged her dicker, and when she was able to stand we wrapped her in our coats and carried her to the boat. There wasn't room in it for more than two, so I made Vincent get in with her and row back to the castle. So they left us, and Agatha Third and I, too thoroughly upset by the accident to wish to carry through our picnic, followed them back, walking one on each side of the stream until we reached the bridge, where we joined forces.

As we returned I did a great deal of thinking. So it was Agatha Second, after all, who was the real Honorable Agatha. For certainly her possession of the Wyckhoff ring, mentioned in the will, was proof positive. Now that I thought of it, the suspicious circumstances of Agatha Third's seemingly involuntary rising when Vincent toasted the Honorable Agatha, admitted of many explanations. At any rate, morning, though there was a flattering chorus of protests when I made this announcement. "I shall go," said Vincent, positively, just as if anyone had disputed it. "I always go, don't I, Miss Marsh?" appealing to the secretary, who was present, but who, of course, had been rather left out of the conversation.

"Yes," she answered, smiling at him faintly. "You always do—ever since we've known you, that is. You're a saint, Lord Wilford." But she laughed as she said it, and Vincent, for no reason at all, looked pleased.

Then the girls all went into the house to change their frocks, and Vincent, too, had to go and get himself changed out in all the swiftness of his Bond Street afternoon things. "Are you going to ride or walk?" I asked him as he came downstairs ahead of the young ladies.

"Walk," he said. "It's such a ripping day the girls thought they'd like it. The phaeton is coming for us after church. What's the matter with you? We shall miss you."

"Oh, just a bit off my feed this morning. But Vincent, my boy, do you realize that you're going to church whatever her reason for her action, the presence of the Wyckhoff ring on the neck of Agatha Second had proved to me the falsity of that other clew and the identity of our fair but mysterious hostess.

AGATHA FOURTH.

The next morning when she came down to breakfast I inquired with great concern as to the effects of the accident of the day previous. She replied most kindly that she felt very nearly as well as ever and thanked me earnestly for my share in her rescue. In fact, her gratitude was so profuse as to make me uncomfortable, and I protested volubly that what I had done was nothing. Nevertheless, from that day on Agatha Second clung to me in a manner that was almost touching. Vincent, to my surprise, instead of taking advantage of his part as hero, seemed rather anxious to avoid the girl, whereas, before our mutual discovery, he had seemed to be quite taken with her. Although his conduct was a puzzle to me, yet I could only rejoice that it was so, for it left the field absolutely free to me, and I felt as each day passed that now, indeed, I was better on the trail of that twenty millions than I had yet been.

It was the first Sunday after the accident and the fourth of our stay. We had breakfasted at eight and were sitting around aimlessly waiting until it was time to go to church.

When it was finally time to get ready my head ached from the sun, for I had been sitting without my hat, and I decided that I would not go that had begun to regret that I had permitted Vincent to go to church the only excuse of such a galaxy of beauty. So I put on my hat and strolled out over the lawn and down the long drive, and before I knew it I had reached the bottom of the hilly road and had set out over the fields. The church pretty had gone by the way of the path over the fields, for that was a shorter route than the main road.

As I walked quickly along the well-beaten path between the thickets I stopped suddenly and stooped to pick up a small dust-covered object which proved to be a prayer book. "One of these careless girls has dropped it," I said to myself, for they had all carried them. Opening it to find the owner's name, I was much agitated to read on the flyleaf this inscription: "To my daughter Agatha, from her father, Fletcher Boyd, and the date, 1900. It was, then, a gift which Fletcher Boyd had made to his daughter only two years before his death."

I was wild with excitement in a minute. I would keep the book, and some time when all the girls were gathered together I would announce that I had it in my possession and see if one of them did not betray herself by asking me for it. But Fate decreed that I should make my test of the prayer book more speedily, for I picked in the distance the white figure of a girl hastening back. The path was dusty and the sun was shining right in her face, so I trusted she had not seen me, and putting the little volume down just where I had found it, I jumped behind the bushes. The owner of the book was looking for her property. On she came, running slowly and glancing eagerly from side to side of the pathway. As she came opposite me she stopped and snatched up the book, and when she had run back again the conviction that the Honorable Agatha was no other than Agatha Fourth was forced upon me.

So roused was I by this event that I turned my steps homeward at once. Suspicion had now fallen on every one of the six Agathas, but this—this was the most convincing of proofs! That night I could hardly wait for the end of the evening, so that I could drag Vincent into my room and disclose to him my final and greatest discovery. I was so full of excitement over it, besides feeling a certain pride in my wit and sagacity which had led to the discovery of so many important clews, that I was rather disappointed when Vincent received my disclosure with indifference.

"At it again, Arch," he said, rather gloomily, as he sat cross-legged before my fire in extreme deshabille, and smoking his vile pipe. "What is the use? I should think you'd got tired of pursuing the elusive gold. I admire your patience, my boy, but I don't take any more stock in this 'clow' than I did in your others. When you think that you have now fastened suspicion upon each one of the six fair ladies who have been christened Agatha I marvel at the sanguine temperament which permits you to place so much importance on this last find of yours."

He stopped, and I answered him rather sarcastically, as I didn't like the gentle ridicule of his tone or his lack of enthusiasm.

"It seems to me," I said, "that considering how you've spent your time, my dear boy, you are a very poor person to look down upon my efforts to turn this adventure of ours to some account. The fact that I have kept my eyes open and used those faculties of penetration and observation of which I am the natural possessor to discover a piece of information which might prove of great value, not only to myself, but also to you—this fact, I say, Vincent, ought hardly to bring upon me your derision as well as your lack of sympathy." I don't mind admitting that I really felt hurt, and Vincent saw that I did.

He took his pipe out of his mouth and looked at me with those big, truthful eyes of his so patiently that I smiled inwardly; then he gathered up his long limbs from my hearth and came and enfolded himself at my feet as I sat in my easy chair.
